

Anthony Gabriel, M.D. joined DaVita in 1998. He is currently our Chief Information Officer. Previously, Anthony was involved with the IS group at UCLA Medical Center where he was a practicing physician in the area of Internal Medicine. Anthony has also practiced as a hospitalist and served as an independent consultant to the health care industry focusing on health care systems. Anthony serves ProposalTech as a director and advisor.