

TRAVELING WHILE ON DIALYSIS

Just because you or a family member may be on dialysis... doesn't mean your travel days are over.

Whether you and your family decide to travel

by train...

by plane...

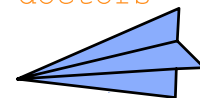

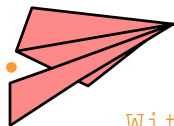

...or by automobile

It is now easier than ever to dialyze. DaVita has over 1,800 clinics nationwide and most likely near your destination!

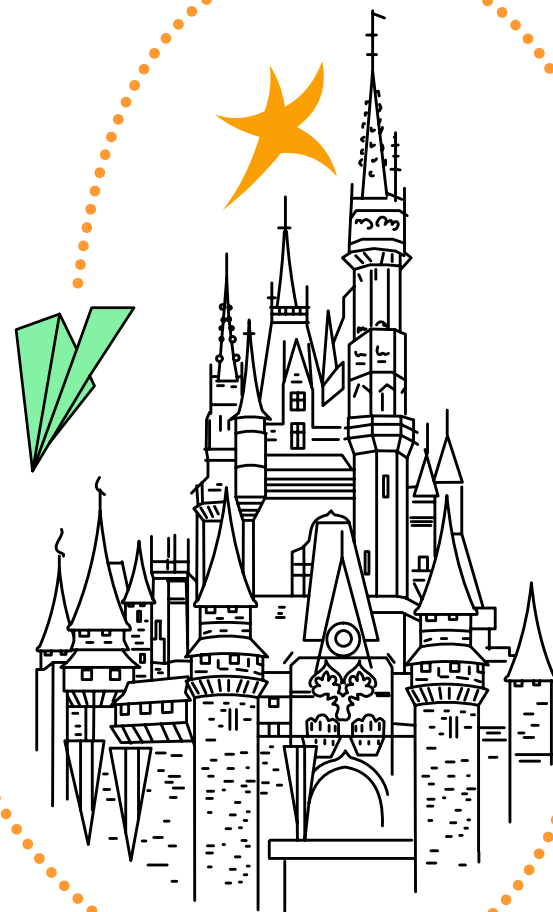

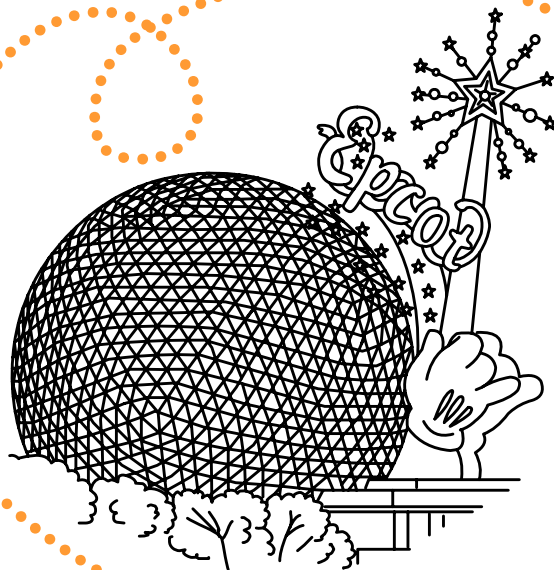

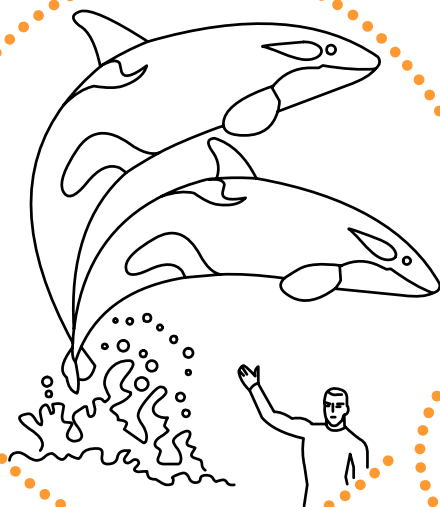

With most dialysis treatment choices, supplies can be shipped to your location and you or your family won't miss out on any of the fun. It's beneficial to talk to your doctors and social worker to make sure there is a clinic nearby.

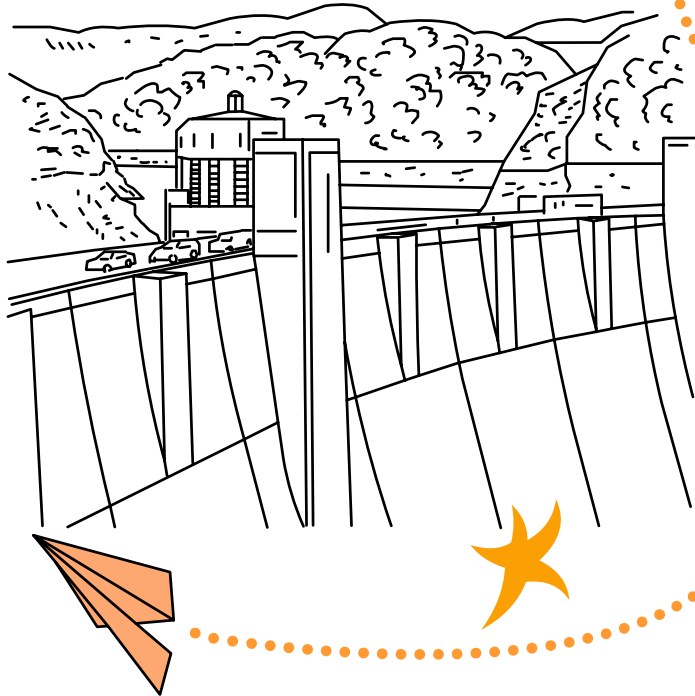

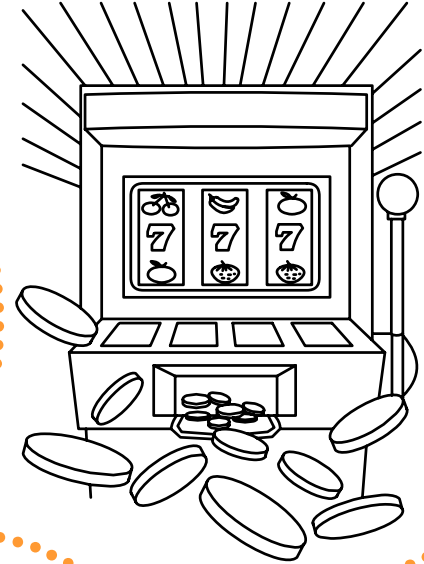

Here are a few cities that are Dialysis Patient Friendly...

Orlando, Florida

Orlando offers exciting attractions that everyone of all ages will enjoy including Walt Disneyworld, Universal Studios Orlando, SeaWorld Orlando, as well as beautiful beaches.

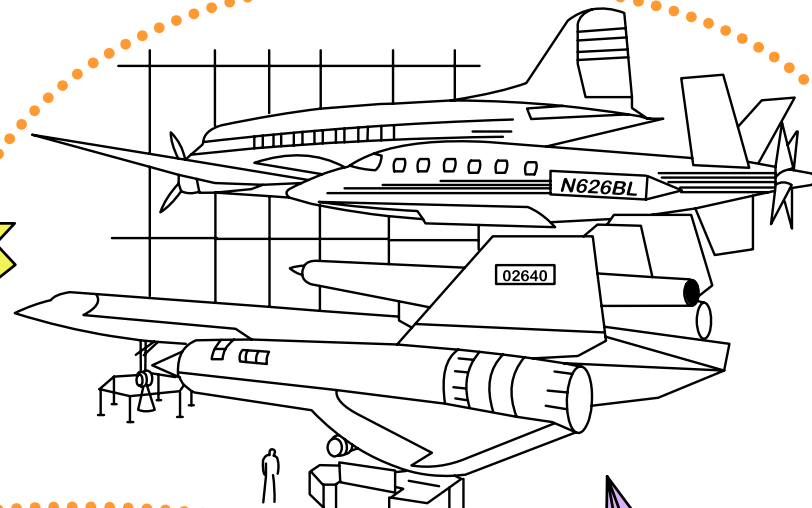

Las Vegas, Nevada

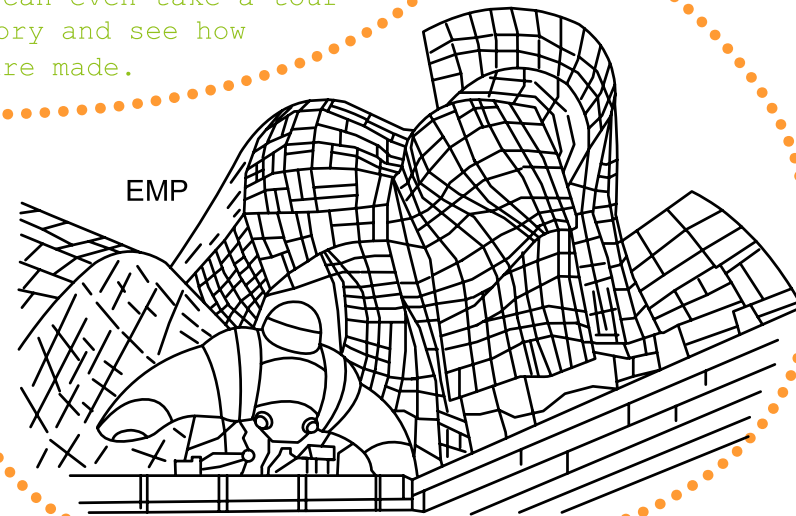

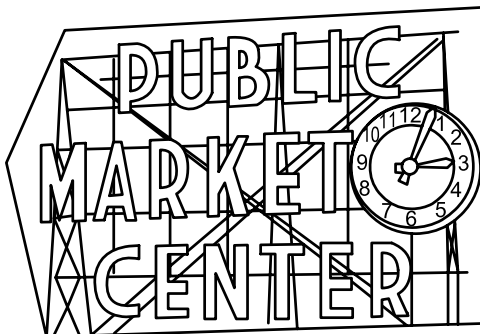

With 14 centers near Las Vegas it's easy to come to the desert and enjoy the Hoover Dam, Casinos, shows and world class dining.

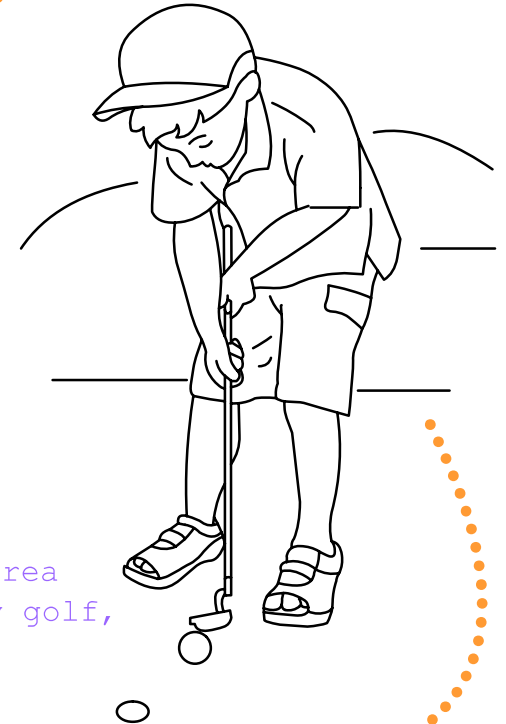

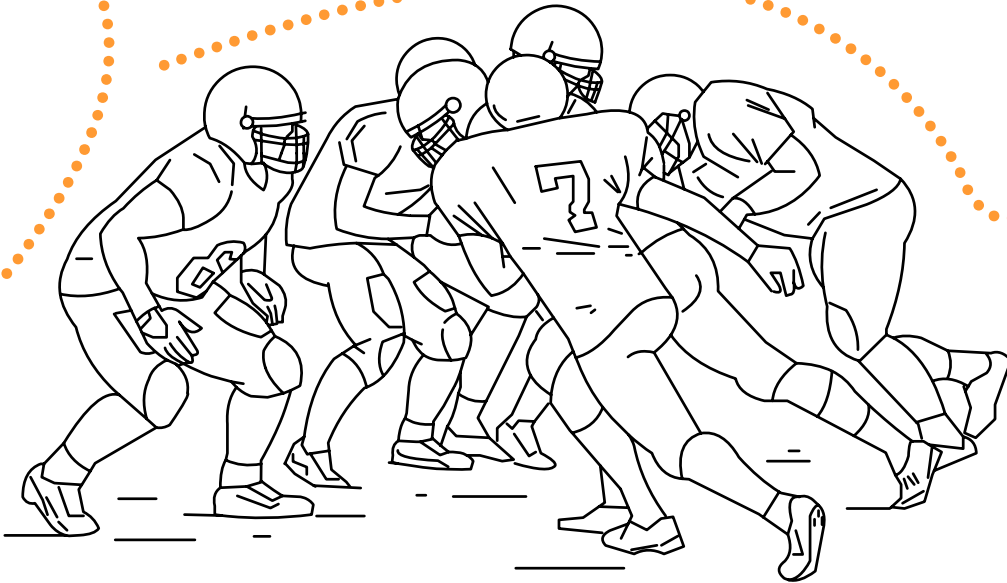

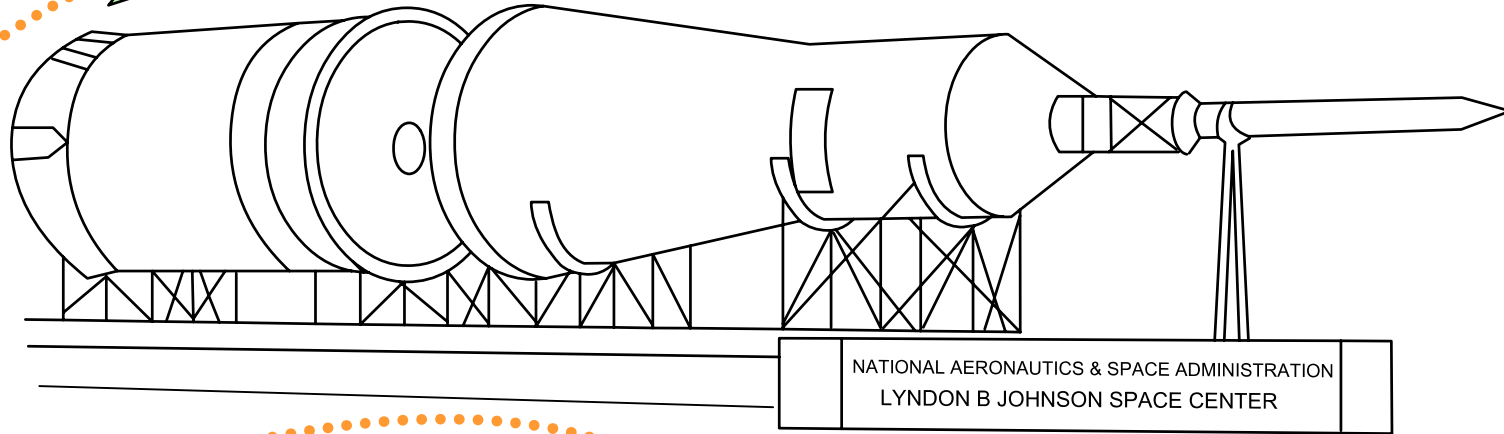

Seattle, Washington

Seattle is named as the "Emerald City" with its vast amount of rain it receives each year. Visit the Original Starbucks, zoom to the top of the Space Needle to see the view or bee-bop over to the Experience Music Project Museum. If you enjoy shopping head over to the famous Pike Place Market. You can even take a tour of he Boeing Factory and see how airplanes are made.

Houston, Texas

Houston has a lot to offer families and their loved ones on dialysis when they come to visit. DaVita has 37 centers in the area and they are close to many attractions. Whether you're coming to play golf, attend a sporting event like football or baseball, or partake in some interactive learning at NASA's Johnson Space Center, there is something for everyone to enjoy.

Know Before You Go!

It is always best to check with your Doctor and medical team prior to traveling. They can help you find facilities near by to assist you while on vacation or help you order supplies to be shipped to your destination.
