

Laura Mildenberger currently serves as the Chief People Officer for DaVita. Prior to her executive role, she joined DaVita in October 2001 and served as Vice President of Operations covering multiple states, leading over 1,300 teammates and launching a multitude of Village Programs - including DaVita Patient Citizens and The Kidney Trust.

Beginning her career as an Occupational Therapist at Mayo Clinic, Laura has served as the Director of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation for a healthcare system and as the Executive Vice President/Principal of a private multi-site physical rehabilitation company. Laura also served as Vice President of Operations for the Western U.S. for Matrix Rehabilitation, a leading national outpatient rehabilitation organization.